LADDER LETTERS

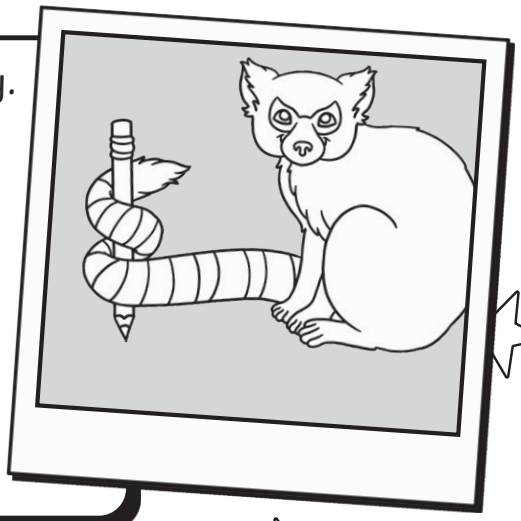

There are six letters in The Ladder Letter Family.

They are: l, i, u, t, y, and j.

Can you guess why they are called The Ladder Letter Family?

The Ladder Letters all start at the top and then follow a straight line down.

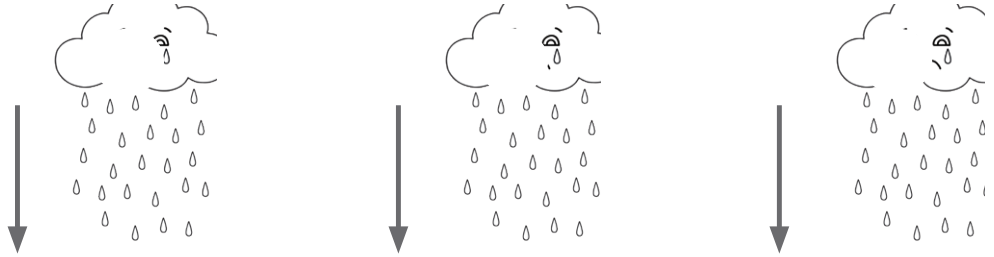

Use the patterns below to practise your lines.

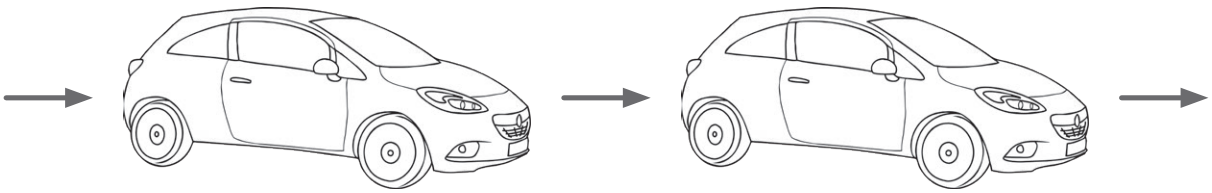

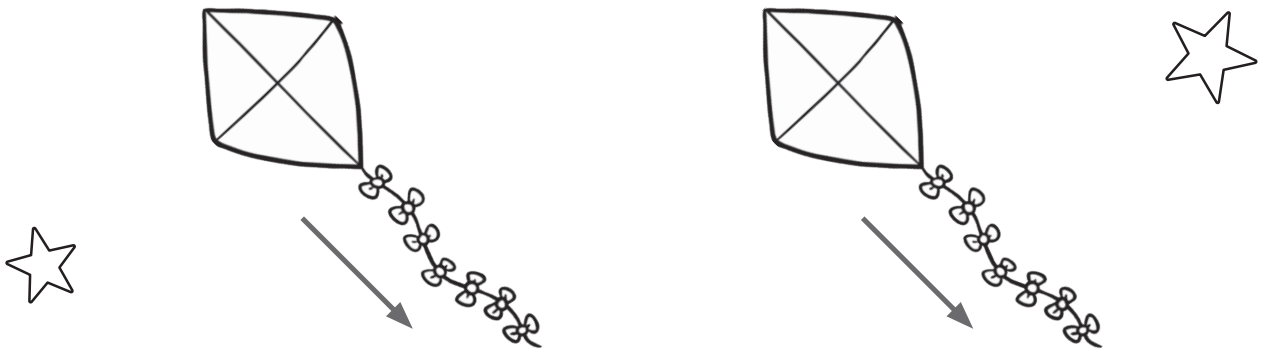

CAN YOU CONTINUE THESE WARM-UP PATTERNS?

visit twinkl.com

visit twinkl.com

ONE-ARMED ROBOT LETTERS

There are seven letters in The One-Armed Robot Family.

They are: r, n, m, h, k, p and b.

Can you guess why they are called The One-Armed Robot Family?

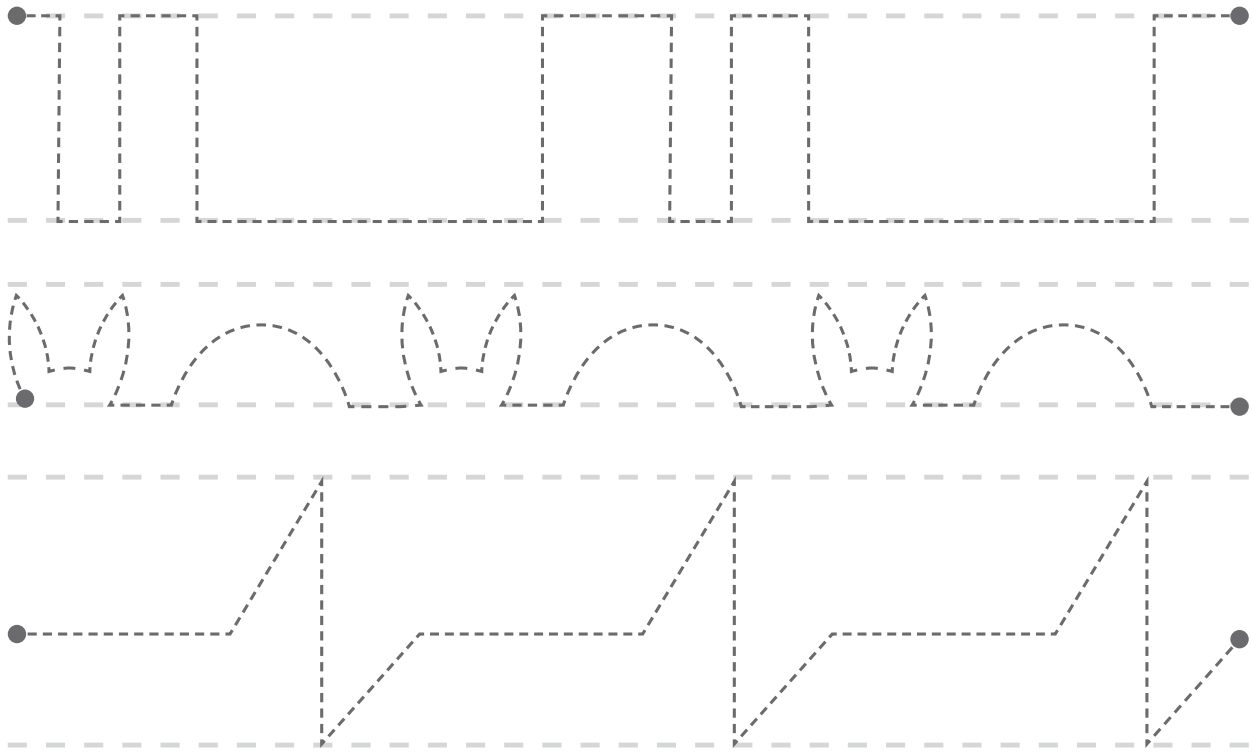

The One-Armed Robot letters all start at the top, go straight down, then up and over.

Apart from the letter 'k', all the letters have a curve.

Use the patterns below to help practise your lines.

CAN YOU CONTINUE THESE WARM-UP PATTERNS?

visit twinkl.com

CURLY CATERPILLAR LETTERS

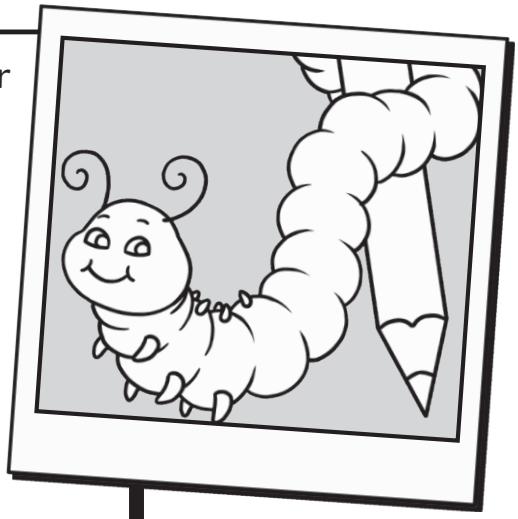

There are nine letters in The Curly Caterpillar Family.

They are: c, a, d, e, s, g, f, q and o.

Can you guess why they are called The Curly Caterpillar Family?

The Curly Caterpillar letters all start at the top and curl around.

Use the patterns below to practise your curls.

CAN YOU CONTINUE THESE WARM-UP PATTERNS?

visit twinkl.com

ZIGZAG MONSTER LETTERS

There are four letters in The Zigzag Monster Family.

They are: z, v, w and x.

Can you guess why they are called The Zigzag Monster Family?

The Zigzag Monster letters are all formed using straight lines and diagonal lines.

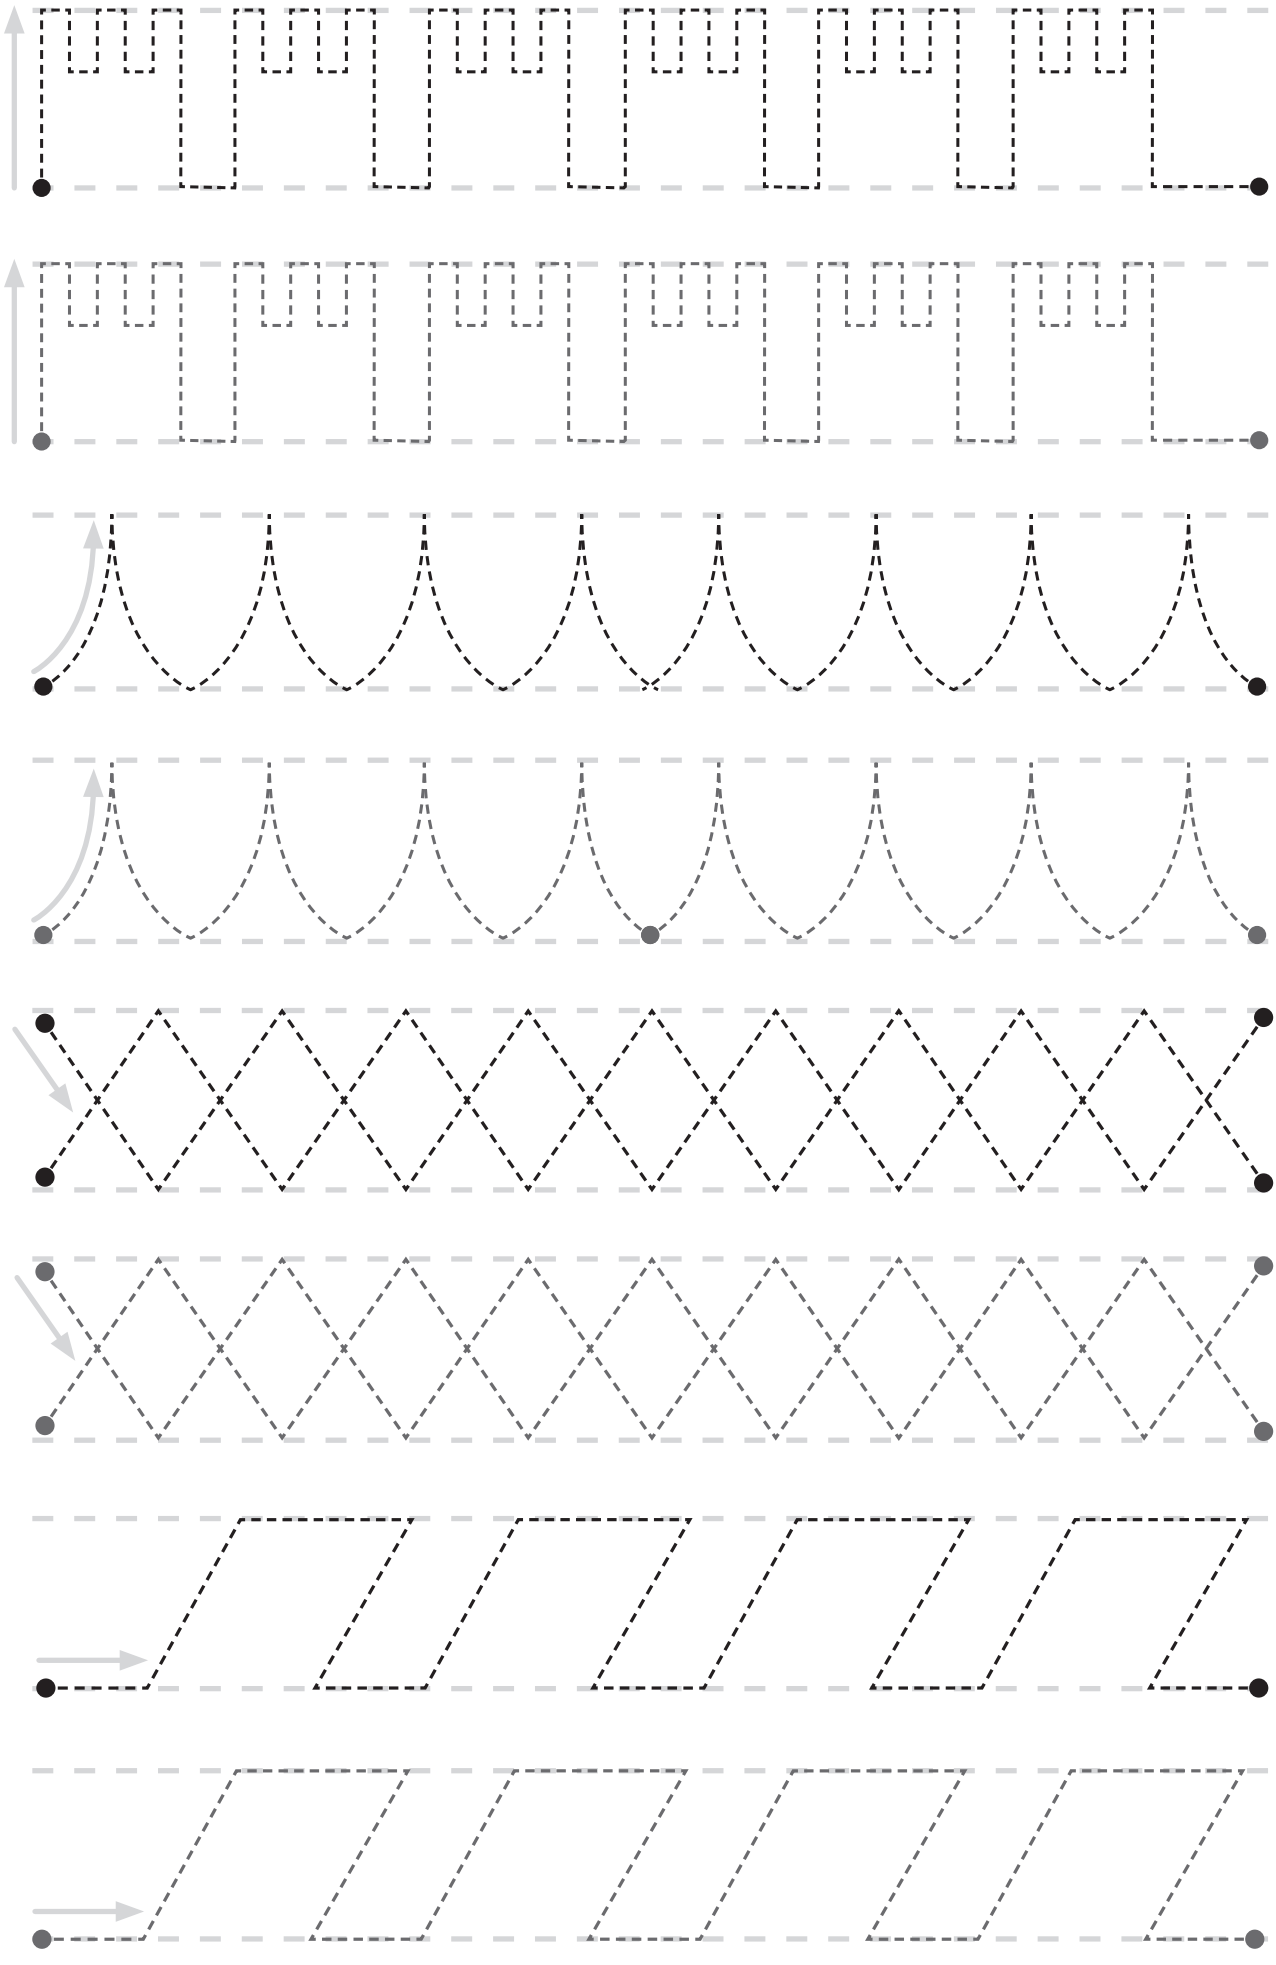

Use the patterns below to practise your lines.

CAN YOU CONTINUE THESE WARM-UP PATTERNS?

visit twinkl.com

visit twinkl.com